

In 2014 Today's Best Music Magic 95 celebrates 32 years as a stand-alone, locally-owned free over-the-air broadcast radio station with a Hot AC format featuring popular music targeted to 18-to-54-year-old adults. Unique benefits include being the only radio station with its own channel on Fidelity Cablevision. Live, local announcers contribute to the overall homegrown feel of the radio station and provide long-term loyalty and consistency with our listeners.

The Oklahoma Association of Broadcasters recognized Magic 95 as the 2011 Non-Metro Radio Station of the Year.

Magic 95

was one of four finalists in the competition, which is judged by out-of-state broadcasters. The award is based on community service, local programming, promotions and business accomplishments.

We live up to our slogan that Magic 95 is Everywhere by participating in a wide variety of community events and promotions by providing live remote broadcasts and sponsorships. In 2014 Magic 95 was honored by the Oklahoma Association of Broadcasters with its 19th Community Service Award. Since the category was created in 1998, has won more Community Service Awards than any other radio or television station in Oklahoma.

Magic 95

Mornings begin with the award-winning Indie & Crash. In middays it's Big Al, Steve O in the afternoons, and in the evenings. Weekend programming includes the

Rick Dees Weekly Top 40

Retro Pop Reunion with Joe Cortez

, and

Dawson McAlister Live

☐☐☐☐ Magic 95 covers Southwest Oklahoma on 95.3 FM with 14,000 watts.
