

The White Buffalo Food & Beer Company is locally owned and operated by classically trained graduates from Le Cordon Bleu College. Everything is fresh and made from scratch. The only thing they don't make is the bread they get fresh from Johnson's Bakery. They grind their own burgers, break down whole chickens, cut the fries and onion strings, cook and slice their own ham and turkey and make all of their own sauces. You'll find no frozen prepared food or canned vegetables. You'll enjoy all the love and care they put into every meal!
